Please describe arrangements you and your advisor have made with faculty at the University of Washington to provide supervision for your studies here. If such contact has not already occurred you can write or call the Valle Program Director for names of faculty who could be interested in your area of study. Note that successful applicants are expected to complete a degree program and to be full-time students during the grant period. Valle funds cannot be awarded until applicants are admitted to the Graduate School.

College of Built Environments students should note that a portfolio is to be submitted together with the Valle application.

Further comments you wish to make regarding your application: Use a separate page to describe these issues.

NOTE: Application to the U.W. Graduate School can be made via the World-Wide-Web: <http://www.grad.washington.edu/>. Due to the time required for processing, The Office of Graduate Admissions encourages international applicants to submit application materials prior to November 1. A copy of your application to the Graduate School should be provided as part of the Valle Program application.
