Review of Minutes

- ✓ January 9, 2018 – APPROVED

Course Proposals (see below)

Old Business

- Direct-To-College Updates
 - College of Arts & Science plans to move to Direct to Division admissions model, however, there is concern in colleges around the university due to the impact it will have on interest changers.
 - The faculty placement review committee will plan to review the proposed placement processes and provide final recommendations by end of Spring quarter.
 - Admitted Student Preview Day (April 21) planning is in process.
 - There will be a meeting on February 14 at 3:30pm in EEB 303 to discuss first year curriculum development (similar to Strategic Initiative). Brian will be outlining a framework of targeted learning outcomes for 100/200 level engineering courses. These courses will be expected to introduce students to engineering broadly to help best inform students during their first year to choose departments.

New Business

- Autumn Academic Misconduct Report
 - During Autumn 2017, there were 28 students reported to have committed academic misconduct. Students were primarily Junior/Senior/Graduate. There was discussion around whether or not this data should be publically available to faculty and students.

Upcoming winter quarter meetings: February 6, February 20, March 6
